

CAMSTRAND 2018: Adapting to the Demands of 21st Century Health Research Draft Programme

Tuesday 26th June 2018
1200-1300	Registration & Refreshments
1300-1700	Pre-Conference Workshop	Critical Appraisal, Blogging, and Social Media	Andre Tomlin The Mental Elf, National Elf Service
1700-1900	Registration & Refreshments
1800-1900	Heads of CAM Meeting
1930	Conference Dinner

Pre-Conference Workshop: Andre Tomlin is widely known as the Mental Elf, promoting the work of the National Elf Service. A former information scientist, he is a prominent advocate for evidence based medicine and trains academics and clinicians to hone their use of social media and blogging.
<https://www.nationalelfservice.net/about-mental/>

Wednesday 27th June 2018
0830-0900	Registration & Refreshments
Session 1 - Chair: Dr Graeme Donald, University of Manchester
0900-0905	Welcome to CAMSTRAND 2018	Drs Sarah Croke & Graeme Donald, UoM Conference Organisers
0905-0915	Meditation
0915-0940	Welcome to UoM & Plenary Session 1	Planning Fruitful Research Strategies in the Current Climate	Prof. Aneez Esmail Professor of General Practice, Director of NIHR Manchester Patient Safety Translational Research Centre, UoM
0940-1030	Keynote Lecture	How Essential Oils Might Contribute to the Fight Against Antimicrobial Resistance	Dr Jacqui Stringer Clinical Lead for Supportive Care Services, The Christie Hospital
1030-1045	Plenary Session 2	Strengthening the CAM Research Community	Dr Graeme Donald Lecturer in Adult Nursing, UoM
1045-1115	Coffee Break & Poster Viewing

Session 2 - Chair: Dr Sarah Croke, University of Manchester
1115-1215	Oral Presentations
1215-1245	Poster Presentations
1245-1345	Buffet Lunch
Session 3 - Chair: Dr Lisa Riste, University of Manchester
1345-1415	Poster Presentations
1415-1515	Oral Presentations
1515-1545	Plenary Session 3: Methodology Lecture	The Need for Novel Methodologies & Introduction to Theatricality	Dr Sarah Croke Research Associate, UoM
1545-1600	Coffee Break
Session 4 - Chair: Dr John Hughes, Royal London Hospital for Integrated Medicine
1600-1645	Oral Presentations
1645-1700	Conference Prizegiving & Closing Remarks	Prof. Nicky Robinson RCCM Chair, Professor of TCM & Integrated Health, London South Bank University
1700	Close

Conference Website: www.rccm.org.uk/node/291
Bookings: <https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/rccm-camstrand-conference-adapting-to-the-demands-of-21st-century-health-research-tickets-43338544754?ref=elink>
Venue Information & Accommodation: <http://www.chancellorshotel.co.uk/>
Quote CAMSTRAND to receive preferential rates - £73.95 per night

Keynote Lecture: Dr Jacqui Stringer is an experienced cancer nurse and clinical aromatherapist. Her work includes using essential oil preparations in managing complex, infected wounds and problematic side-effects associated with cancer treatment.
<http://www.christie.nhs.uk/services/a-to-h/complementary-therapy/about-us/the-team/>

Plenary Session 1: Prof. Aneez Esmail is a GP and researcher who has raised over £11 million in research grants and practices acupuncture within his clinical role. Aneez previously served 9 years as Associate Vice President for Social Responsibility at the University of Manchester .
<http://www.aneezesmail.co.uk/>

Plenary Session 2: Dr Graeme Donald is a nurse academic with particular interests in CAM, cancer, HIV, and cultivating resilience. He teaches mindfulness to student nurses and people living with chronic illness . He is founding chair of the new research network, CAMRAN (CAM Research Alliance North).
<http://www.manchester.ac.uk/research/graeme.donald/>

Plenary Session 3: Dr Sarah Croke is a research associate and works privately as a holistically orientated massage therapist. During her PhD, she developed a new research methodology for CAM studies to better capture therapy complexity. Sarah is the founding secretary of the CAMRAN network.
https://www.researchgate.net/profile/Sarah_Croke